

A blurred background image showing a group of people walking, likely in a public space. The focus is on the text overlaid on the image.

A day of reflection for action for anyone aged between 18 & 35...

Saturday
24 March 2012

10am-5pm

The Gillis Centre
Strathearn Road
Edinburgh EH9 1BB

I have called you
by your name

A day for you

...if you are aged between 18 and 35 and would like to:

- Take some time out to reflect on how God might be calling you to act in the world...
- Learn more about the connections between faith and action for justice and peace...
- Explore ideas and techniques for nourishing and resourcing yourself...
- Hear from individuals actively working for a just world...
- Meet others struggling with the same questions and concerns...
- Take time alone to reflect and time with others to share...

The day is being organised by The Justice & Peace and Youth Co-ordinators of the Archdiocese of St Andrews and Edinburgh, with SCIAF.

The reflection day is open to over 18s only. The day includes lunch and ends with Mass. Cost: £10 (Places are limited so book early, before 9 March, to avoid disappointment.)

For more information or to book email:

Miriam.mchardy@staned.org.uk
or anne.mcevoy@staned.org.uk

www.facebook.com/EdinburghRCdiocese

www.archdiocese-edinburgh.com

SCIAF
for a just world