‘Six Days’ 10am - 4pm

15 October: Finding God in All Things Through the lenses of Celtic spirituality and contemporary cosmology, discover God in all things from a blade of grass to the widest reaches of the universe. With Julia Ling & Jane Mackichan, team members at the Ignatian Spirituality Centre in Glasgow.

10 December: Finding a True Course in a Changing World Using the tools of discernment to discover and embrace the shape of God's Dream in our everyday lives. With Margaret Silf, retreat director, author and speaker on Ignatian spirituality.

4 February: Faith Journey Transitions As we change, or our faith community changes, disagreements can arise. We will explore tools to enable us to embrace changes in our faith development as gifts to our journey with the potential for transformative insights and experiences, as well as how we pray through these transitions. With Dr Eolene Boyd-MacMillan, practical theologian, counsellor (adults and children), spiritual director, researcher and author.

24 March: Male Spirituality How does the shape of men’s spirituality differ from women’s? Why are men so hard to understand for women, let alone by themselves? We will look at the challenges of being a man today; this day is open to both men and women. With Rev Robin Anker-Petersen who has been actively engaged with MALEs UK since 2003, formed around the work of Fr Richard Rohr (www.malespirituality.co.uk). In daily life Robin co-directs The Bield retreat centre with his wife, Marianne.

28 April: Creative Spirituality With Melitta Bosworth, an Artist trained in Spiritual Direction and Person Centred Counselling, she is particularly interested in using art materials to explore spirituality and enjoys encouraging others to do likewise.

2 June: The Enneagram helps us to recognise and acknowledge our own areas of giftedness and limitation. By enabling us to appreciate more fully our individual differences, we can also find ways of relating to one another with greater understanding and compassion. With Ali Newell, a Church of Scotland Minister who works for the Ignatian Spirituality Centre, Glasgow.
